

M'CALL FREED ON FAULTY INDICTMENT

Coup By Attorneys For Defense In Cold Check Cases Secure Quick Dismissal.

On a purely legal technicality, Hubert McCall, of Lexington, was acquitted on peremptory instructions in Circuit Court late Tuesday, at the second trial in the series of "cold check" cases that have been attracting so much attention. After the witnesses for the prosecution had concluded their testimony, attorneys for the defendant moved for peremptory instructions for acquittal for McCall, on the ground that no proof had been offered to sustain allegations of the indictment. The indictment charged that when the defendant bought a suit and shoes from Hamilton Bros. to amount of $44.50, he made the statement that he had funds in the State Bank and Trust Company, sufficient to meet the check which he gave in payment for the goods. Mr. Weber Hamilton, who told of making the sale to McCall did not testify to McCall having made any such statement, nor did Mr. R. E. Turley, cashier of the State Bank and Trust Company or Chief of Police Claude Devore, the only other witnesses introduced by the prosecution and there was no testimony to support the charge in the indictment. The defense attorneys argued that the indictment was false and invalid and that their client was entitled to a dismissal on peremptory instructions, and the court sustained their contention. Commonwealth Attorney Crutcher prayed an appeal to the Court of Appeals from this ruling of the court, and pending such action by the state's highest tribunal, the other "cold check" cases were continued to the October term of circuit court.

The sudden denouement seemed to take everyone by surprise and proved simply one of the many technicalities in the application of the law, which can be brought to advantage by shrewd and able attorneys. When McCall's plea of guilty was changed from guilty to not guilty, there was considerable speculation as to the motive behind it, and it quickly developed when the attorneys for the defense made their clever move.

McCall had admitted his guilt at both his examining trial and when arraigned in circuit court after indictment. There is another indictment against him however, and it is understood that this as well as the indictment against the other defendants may be altered or amended to conform to the ruling of the court on this point. It is said to be practically a certainty that dismissals could be obtained for all the defendants on this technicality of the indictments, if the ruling is sustained by the Court of Appeals, for so far as can be learned, none of the local business men questioned any of the four culprits as to whether or not they had money in bank to meet the phony checks they gave at the time they made their "cold" or half a dozen or so Richmond business houses.

McCall and his wife and the Hutton woman were all released on the same $4,000 bond they had furnished for appearance at this term of court, the bond simply being renewed by the Union Bank & Trust Company of Lexington to hold good for their appearance at the October term of court. However, Coy Hutton, who was first tried on his plea of guilty and sentenced to three years in the State Reformatory at Frankfort, will probably be taken there as soon as this term of court is over to begin his incarceration.

Colored Burglars Convicted Lorenzo Harris and Jay Jones, colored boys, who broke into Rice & Arnold's gents' furnishings establishment and J. S. Stanifer's store, pled guilty to the charges against them and were sentenced to serve three years each in the State Reformatory. They were caught by Chief of Police Claude Devore at Covington.

CRONAN MAY BE ONLY KENTUCKY COLLECTOR

Louisville, May 28.—An Evening Post Washington special says: Internal Revenue Bureau plans for the consolidation of the various revenue districts in Kentucky are about completed with the probability the office will be located in Louisville. Commissioner Roper is said to be against the idea of maintaining two offices, one at Lexington and the other at Louisville. There would, however, be 15 or 20 branches including Lexington, Danville, Covington and Owensboro, all in charge of deputies under the charge of Charles J. Cronan, whose nomination as collector is imminent.

REVENUE MAN IS SLAIN IN MOUNTAINS

According to information received by Collector John W. Haggard, at Danville, United States Deputy Collector, A. P. Hart, who works under his office, was shot to death and two of his assistants were probably fatally injured, in a close-range pistol duel with draft evaders and moonshiners near Pond Gap, in the Cumberland Mountains, not far from the Kentucky-Virginia border, Monday. One or more of the outlaws is believed to have been wounded, and Federal agents and a volunteer posse are searching the mountainside for Collector Hart's slayer.

The battle was fought a short distance from the roadside, according to information received, and more than fifty shots were exchanged. The draft evaders opened fire, it is understood, when not more than thirty paces away from the officers, who closed in upon them, urging them to submit to arrest. Collector Hart was the first to fall, and two other members of his party dropped immediately afterwards. There were six men in Hart's posse, and apparently a dozen or more of the outlaws. The deaths of Collector Hart resulted from repeated efforts by Federal inspectors to break up a gang of drafters and moonshiners, who it is alleged, have been making whiskey in wholesale quantities, who have established well-organized sales market in the mountains.

WILSON MAY RUN IF LEAGUE IS BEATEN

(By Associated Press) Chicago, May 28.—President Wilson's candidacy for a third term will be largely determined by the fate of the League of Nations, in the opinion of Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who came here today to preside at the two days' session of that body. He said he had no information regarding Wilson's intentions but felt if the League is defeated, great pressure will be brought to bear on Wilson to run again. The republicans decided to ride a forlorn hope, after all. At a meeting of the republican committee for the Eighth district at Danville Saturday, they nominated Hoar King Swope, of Boyle, for Congress, to oppose Judge Charles A. The district is normally about 3,000 democratic, he is facing an up-hill proposition from the start, especially as all democrats are solidly behind Judge Hardin in this special election.

Here's Glorious Relief From Itching Skin Diseases

No More Fiery Pain If You use the Right Treatment

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that the fiery, burning and itching that causes such pain and torture, is not a local skin disease. True, the skin is the seat of the attack, but the skin is fed by the blood and suffers from any impurity in the blood.

This explains why you have been so disappointed in getting any real lasting relief from the use of ointments, salves, lotions, or other remedies applied to the surface of the skin.

The millions of tiny diseased germs which infest the blood keep up a constant attack on the skin and are not effected by the skin, by local treatment. They must be routed from the blood.

These germs which saturate the blood cannot be reached by the skin. When you keep the local irritations with local applications, you must remember that the blood is feeding fresh new germs all the time, to keep the skin irritated, and until the supply of germs is cut off entirely, you cannot expect any real relief.

But S. S. S., the fine old blood remedy, goes directly after the germs that infest the blood, and puts them to rout. This remedy is strictly a blood purifier, and there is no disease germ that can withstand its attacks.

This is why S. S. S. gives such satisfactory results in eczema, tetters, boils, pimples, or any other skin eruptions or disorder. By thoroughly purifying the blood, and cleansing it of every trace of disease germ, S. S. S. removes the cause of all skin eruptions, and restores its normal, healthy condition.

If you want relief that is lasting, because it goes to the seat of the trouble, get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and take it as directed, and satisfactory results will follow. It is sold by all drug stores. Special medical advice about your own case can be had without cost, by writing to Chief Medical Adviser, 102 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Up To Black To Save Democratic Party In State

No governor who sat in the executive chair in Frankfort, in recent years, perhaps, had such an opportunity to do his state and his party a real service, as has Gov. Black. The people are cognizant of conditions that have existed at Frankfort for the past three years and they are not satisfied with them. Newspapers in every part of the state are giving Gov. Black advice what to do. Democratic organs seeing the drift of affairs are urging that he take prompt courageous action to save the party in the coming state elections. He can do so if he will. If he fails at this crucial time, the fact might as well be faced that there is little use in the party making nominations for state offices to be voted for this year. Call it treason if you will, but it is so, and the people know it is so, and where the merit can be found in denying it and seeking to gloss over a nasty situation, we cannot see. The Stanford Interior Journal said some pertinent things about the great opportunity before Gov. Black last week and the Daily Register as one of the original supporters of Gov. Black endorses it and would most respectfully call his serious attention thereto. His friends everywhere are saying these very things and hoping and confident that he will rise to the occasion. The Stanford paper said:

Gov. Black has the power to turn things upside down or to be more correct put them right side up. He may ask the resignation of the text book commission, cancel the employment of the special attorneys engaged to assist the attorney general in collecting the Bingham inheritance tax, a gratuity at the expense of the state, fire Henry Hines, chairman of the board of control, who has tried to beat him with several candidates and fail to carry out the program to appoint Auditor Green a member of the tax commission thereby possibly throwing

Thomas B. Pannel, who has the same record on the governor's quest as Hines, out of the fire marshal job. Unless there has been some deal these gentlemen are on the anxious bench and will be till Gov. Black shows his hand.

No governor ever had greater opportunity to distinguish himself and take the affairs of state out of the hands of professional politicians, who have ruled it so long and so arbitrarily. He can either make his nomination sure or ruin his chances for it. His friends, confidently claim that he will make so good that by the time the primary it held no other candidate will be considered for the nomination. Let him make the crowd that has been the power behind the throne clear out and his future is assured.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Elder—Leeds.

At the Catholic parsonage Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Mattie Elder was united in marriage to Mr. James Leeds. The parlor was very attractively decorated for the occasion, white roses, peonies and ferns being most tastefully arranged. The ring ceremony was used, Father H. B. Schulte in his beautiful impressive way officiating. Only the immediate families witnessed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Elder being the only attendants with the exception of the little flower girl, Kathryn Lusk, who preceded them with a basket of white roses. She presented a lovely appearance, beautifully gowned in white. The bride was attired in a handsome tailored gown of blue, with hat and gloves to match, and was never prettier. Her corsage was of white roses and valley lilies, while the matron of honor, Mrs. Elder, was dressed in blue, with a corsage of pink roses. The wedding was the culmination of a courtship which has extended over a period of several years, but no previous announcement had been made and coming as it did was a pleasant surprise to the friends of both throughout the city. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Elder. She is of attractive personality, is wonderfully gifted in music and the man of her choice is indeed to be congratulated. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Leeds, and has just returned from twelve months overseas service. He is a young man of business ability and possesses many sterling qualities, which makes him in every way worthy of the young lady whose heart he has won. Immediately after the ceremony they motored to Lexington where they caught an evening train for Cincinnati, where they will spend several days at the Gibson House, and on their return will make their home with the bride's parents.

Took Medicines As Victim Grabs At Straw, Crowell Says—Reviewed In Trutona.

Paducah, Ky., May 27—"Just as a drowning man grabs at every straw, so have I been trying every medicine I heard of in an effort to get relief from long standing troubles; and the search has not been in vain, for I have found simply marvelous relief through Trutona," J. I had a bad cough, constipation bothered me almost constantly and I usually felt tired and worn out. I frequently became dizzy. Trutona has made me feel like a man made over again; however, my bowels act with clock-like regularity now, the dizzy spells have ceased to occur, and the terrible cough is 100 per cent improved. Velvet THE FRIENDLY TOBACCO

Horse Sense About Tobacco

Good tobacco ought to be like a well-bred hoss—all th' kick taken out but all th' sperit left in.

You see, half the secret of makin' a good hoss is in the breedin' an' half in the breakin'. Selectin' tobacco that's grown right is only half of makin' Velvet. The agein' is the other half.

Thar's only one kind of agein' that gets th' right results—Nature's own. Nature's no clock watcher. She does a job right whether it takes two years or two thousand.

So when she gets through with the fine Kentucky Burley that we put away in wooden hogsheds for two years, it's just right.

It ain't been hurried none, or short-cutted. It's a Nature-done job.

All kinds of things are packed in tobacco tins, but your good neighbor will tell you "Velvet is the real pipe tobacco." Prove it for your self.

In the teachers' examination held by County Superintendent of Schools B. F. Edwards, at the State Normal School last week, of the nine Madison county teachers taking the regular examination, four received first class certificates, four second class and one failed. Those receiving first class certificates were Beulah Young, Mrs. Jennie B. Lakes, Maude Bowman and Mary Joseph Jones.

Fifty-nine Madison county applicants who already have certificates, took the special examination in agriculture which was recently added to the teachers' curriculum. Seventy-nine students attending the State Normal were examined for certificates and fifty more took the special course in agriculture. The papers were sent to the county superintendents of the respective counties of the applicants to be graded.

THIS LAD NOT AS LUCKY AS DUPRE

(By Associated Press.) London, May 24.—American gunmen who befriended and made a mascot of a bright, curly-haired English boy named George Lovelidge, will be grieved to learn that the lad had a hard time of it after they returned to the United States. Charged with sleeping under the haystack and having no visible means of support, the youth was arraigned in the Ukridge police court the other day.

"Well, my boy," questioned the court, "haven't you any friends at all?"

"Only the yanks, sir," the prisoner replied.

He said his father and mother were killed and their house wrecked by a bomb in an air-raid in October, 1917.

"Some American stranger," he went on, "took pity on me and gave me the mascot of No. 186th Squadron. They treated me very kindly, gave me a uniform and took me with them wherever they went. I was paid a month by the paymaster. When the squadron went to France they wanted to take me, but the War Office wouldn't let them, so they asked No. 153d Squadron to take care of me. When that left for France I was handed over to No. 228th Squadron and came with them to Northolt.

"Now they have returned to America," he said, "and I tried right hard to take me, but the government said I couldn't go for four years. I spent all my money and had to sleep under the haystack."

In handing the boy over to the police court missionary, the magistrate said: "You must not mind being in the dock. You haven't done anything very wrong."

American troops are leaving Russia.
